The municipal and township elections in Ohio occurred yesterday.

The Louisville Legion has finally decided to remain in the State Guard.

ONE-FOURTH of all the deaths at Cincinnati last week were caused by pneumonia.

The impression exists at Washington that the new Postmaster General will be either a Southern or a Western man.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR is in very bad health, and it is seriously feared that he will not live to serve out his term of office.

MISS AGNES LANGTRY, a sister-in-law of the Jersey Lily, left the company at Niagara Falls and eloped with a Canadian. Mrs. Langtry is said to be shocked that her own decorum did not inspire in her a deeper sense of propriety.

ONE of our well known citizens is about to establish in Maysville a white mouse manufactory, for the benefit, as we are informed, of the tobacco warehousemen of Cincinnati. Full particulars of the enterprise and the necessity for its establishment can be learned by applying to Mr. T. K. Ball.

A city dog that had the sagacity to recognize Mr. Henry Smoot as one of the leading breeders of fine mutton in the county, one day last week followed his buggy home and devoured a fine South-down lamb. Mr. Smoot with a strong impression that such knowing dogs ought to be put out of the way followed it back to Maysville, hired an experienced dog assassin, and the animal now sleeps the sleep that knows no waking. The example is recommended as worthy of imitation.

The crop prospects of Europe are not good, it is said. In Great Britain, wheat has been injured by an unfavorable winter. In France, one-tenth of the area has been ruined, and a much larger percentage damaged. The wheat product of the United States is said to promise well. The growers in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa are hopeful of very large crops. If it is true that the European crop is in bad condition, and our home crop just the reverse, good prices will continue to prevail in this country. April is pretty early in the year to tell what a September harvest will be.

Compulsory education has been fairly tried in Wisconsin and appears to have been reasonably successful. The present system, which was adopted in 1879, requires the attendance, at public or private schools, for at least twelve weeks in each school year, of all children, between the ages of seven and fifteen in the State. The year following the enactment of the law the school attendance increased fully 10,000. The returns for 1882, show far better results. In 1880, the number of children between the ages of seven and fifteen attending the public and private schools was 183,912, and in 1882 the number was 223,575—a gain of 39,663. In the former year, the percentage of attendance of these children was slightly over eighty, and in the latter year it was eighty-seven. The increase of the school population in these two years was only 22,000.

THE Albany, N. Y., Argus says: We expect an early resolute assertion of the dominating common sense, taking cognizance of fixed facts, which marks the solid minds of the Democratic party. The Democratic masses and the hard-working, economy-desiring men, incensed at Republican abuses, who desire to become Democrats, will rally for retrenchment; for cleaning out the rings which infest the government; for elevating the standard of official service; for relieving the products of the country from nearly all of the internal revenue exactions put upon them, for the placing of the Federal powers in the hands of the men who in a large majority of the States have assured excellent administration to the people. They will not rally for experiments and for shifty isms, under hysterical hobby-riders, and the latter will find out the fact, in time to make them conscious of the truth that the masses of the Democracy make their own platforms, prescribe their own policy, issue their own orders, select their own candidates, and do not take any directions from such as divide their time between the work of magnifying their own omniscience and the practice of scolding those who do not take them at their own appraisal of themselves.

COUNTY POINTS.

MURPHYSVILLE.

The whooping cough, measles and mumps, are giving our little folks more than their share of trouble.

Tobacco has sold rapidly for the last ten days and but little now remains unsold. It is good.

Small grain badly injured by the winter and the crops at this time looks very discouraging to the farmer.

Fruit of all kinds is not injured and as yet, the prospects are good for abundant crops.

Mrs. Eli Stephenson is very low with consumption.

A colored divine and tramp, by the name of Mullins, and hailing from Lewis county, who has been sponging off of his colored brethren this winter, was given a warm reception at Wm. Lane's one night last week. He had not followed the apostle's advice by avoiding all appearance of evil and they treated him to a good supply of roasted locusts, well laid on, and well done for the colored ku-klux.

GERMANTOWN.

The Caughlin Bros. are engaged in purchasing tobacco.

Miss Bettie Reeves, who has been visiting here for some time, left for her home in Indiana Monday.

J. W. Woodward had a tumor cut from his neck on Saturday. Dr. Dimmitt, of this place and Dr. Corlis, of Brooksville, performed the operation.

S. D. and R. E. Riden have started into the mercantile and grocery business. They will also take charge of the postoffice. We wish them success.

Ere this reaches the press the postoffice will have changed hands again. This makes the third time in the past four years. It seems as though it would be better if arrangements could be made for it to stay in one place—at least for four years. But we can hardly hope for this until some plan is adopted to increase the income, at least, of the deputy p. m.

Rev. Hiner, a celebrated divine of the M. E. Church, South, is assisting Rev. Power in the protracted meeting now in progress. Nine additions up to present writing.

Do.

MAYSVILLE.

Miss Mattie T. Collins, living near Paris, is visiting the family of Robt. Bedford.

An alarm of fire was sounded here last Saturday. A sack of rice in the basement of Geo. Myall's grocery took fire by coming against the stove pipe. The bucket delegation was promptly on hand and very little damage done.

Judge John T. Wilson returned from Cincinnati Friday night. His wife is still in the city and is thought to be improving slowly.

Born, to the wife of Benj. Boyce, on the 30th of March, a bouncing boy.

MT. GILEAD.

The late wheat is almost an entire failure in this locality. Hog and hominy will be the go next winter.

Dr. A. G. Browning having recently sold his beautiful little home, Lone Oak, will make Maysville his future home. Many are the regrets expressed at his departure and many the attachments formed that will last long. In him are combined all of the qualities of the true man and native gentleman, and this, we hope is sufficient to commend him to the good people of Maysville.

DELTA.

WASHINGTON.

Regular preaching at the Baptist Church next Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Lucy Clark, of Maysville, is the guest of the Misses Rhoades.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Durrett, of Covington, are spending a few days with their father.

Several of our ladies attended the "Old Folks' Concert" in your city last Friday night, and came away highly delighted.

GUESS WHO?

A CERTAIN young and rising member of the Maysville bar has lately had his picture taken. The intellectual brow, the eagle eye and the mouth of scorn were all there and truthfully portrayed. And as it was a remarkably fine piece of work the artist exhibited it for several days at his front door.

The other afternoon the original happened to be passing, and noticing two men from the country looking at it, he tarried a moment, to hear, perhaps, a compliment.

"Good picture, but I don't know who it is," remarked one.

"I do," said the other.

"Who is it?"

"Cole, the wife pizener."

The original suddenly remembered that he had urgent business on Court street.

Fox rubber stamps of all kinds, call on A. Scories & Son. Prices very low.

A Battle on the Brooklyn Bridge.
NEW YORK, April 2.—The Brooklyn bridge was not open to the public yesterday, although thousands of people crossed during the afternoon. Much excitement was occasioned in the evening in the Italian quarter on Mercer street, in Brooklyn, by a gang of roughs throwing stones from the roadway of the bridge at the houses and residents of that section of the city. The attack was returned by the Italians, and stones were hurled through the air in a very lively manner. Several persons, both in the streets and on the bridge, were severely wounded.

A Good Thing in "Old Clothes."
LOUISVILLE, April 2.—John Collins, a dealer in second-hand clothing and scraps, made a fortunate purchase yesterday. In a bundle of old clothing purchased from an Irish woman on Eleventh street, near Monroe, he found a £50 English bond on a Manchester railroad, dated 1866, and bearing three per cent. interest. It was uncanceled, and presumably worth face value and interest added. Collins does not remember the name of the woman from whom he bought the clothing, and she was probably unaware of its possession.

Twenty-six Persons Killed.
PARIS, April 2.—By a boiler explosion at St. Dizir yesterday twenty-six persons were killed and thirty-eight injured.

Steamboat Explosion.
CAIRO, ILL., April 1.—The towboat Polar Star, on the way to St. Louis, exploded her boilers while opposite Belmont, Mo., at 2 o'clock yesterday. Captain Atkins was blown 300 yards, and picked up by a skiff. Two coal passers, two deckhands, and another man were either drowned or burned to death.

A Heavy Haul.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 1.—Burglars blew open the safe in Carson & Tapping's drug store, Rushville, Yates county, and stole over $30,000 in notes, bonds and mortgages, and $3,000 cash.

USEFUL AND SUGGESTIVE.

—Chocolate Biscuits: Mix some chocolate powder, with white of eggs, and powdered loaf sugar, into a paste. Mold this into biscuits and bake them at a gentle heat on a sheet of white paper.

—Dr. T. H. Hoskins, of Vermont, who has been a fruit-grower for thirty-five years and owns an orchard of over 1,500 trees, is "willing to confess that there is a great deal still to be learned about the business." He adds: "I have never found the kind of men that knew it all of much value as teachers."

—The Agricultural Department will in future make special efforts to collect for publication crop and market reports of European countries, and Commissioner Loring has appointed Edward J. Moffat, of New York, agent for the department for this purpose. He will be made deputy at the London Consul-generalship.

—To mark tools: Cover the part to be marked with a thin coating of tallow or beeswax. Then, with a sharp instrument, write the name in the tallow, cutting clearly into it. Then fill in the letters with nitric acid. Let it remain from one to ten minutes. Then dip in water and rub off, and you will have the mark etched.—N. Y. Sun.

—Pianos and organs are becoming common at farm houses. This is all right, as farmers' daughters have as much right to the refined accomplishments as city ladies. But in addition to music, farmers' daughters ought to know how to wash, iron, cook a good meal, make bread, make shirts and dresses, and then the man who marries her gets a fortune, whether she has money or not.—Iowa State Register.

—A correspondent of the Fruit Recorder says that cotton soaked in turpentine and hung among the branches of plum trees just as the blossoms are falling and frequently renewed until the plums are half grown will effectually protect the fruit from the depredations of the curculio. If gum camphor or any of the essential oils, such as peppermint, pennyroyal, sassafras, etc., are dissolved in the turpentine it produces an odor so strong that it becomes intolerable to all insects.

—Georgia contemplates a sweet thing in potatoes—to wit, the production of 44,000,000 bushels of sweet potatoes, or "duket murrups," as some euphuistic writer has named them. They are of the best and most wholesome of food, and there ought to be no serious difficulty in getting them to market. They think of drying them, which is a good notion, and will enable men at a distance from the scene of production to enjoy a new article of food. Why should there not be dried sweet potatoes as well as dried sweet apples?—Boston Traveller.

—Several Chattanooga (Tenn.) youths filled a large can with water, sealed it up tightly, and then, after placing it over a hot fire, stood by to see it burst. Willie Dugger was so badly scalded when the explosion occurred that he would lose his eyesight and probably his life.

—Those foot-prints in the sandstone at Carson, Nev., turn out to have been made by a beehive. The woman folks will now breathe easier.—Detroit Post.
